

Macromedia Flash

A Two Day Introduction Training Course

Course Aims:

This two-day Introduction training course aims to give you the skills you need to Create animation's with audio suitable for the Web and standalone applications using Macromedia Flash technology. The training course will enable delegates to Understand production issues in Flash and the growing number of complimentary software, in addition delegates will Gain an appreciation for the potential and power offered by Flash. "Flash is not just an animation tool!"

Course Outline:

- Introduction & overview
- What is Flash?
- Benefits
- Features
- The Flash market
- The Flash interface
- Using the drawing & paint tools
- Creating & editing text
- Working with overlays
- Animation
- Using libraries & keyframes
- Creating symbols
- Creating tweened & color animation's
- Adding & synchronizing sounds
- Shape morphing
- Masking & effects
- Using masks
- Using motion guides
- Creating interesting effects with masks
- Live transparency effects
- Advanced Flash
- Button libraries & creating custom buttons
- Importing graphic files
- Set bitmap properties, such as smoothing & lossless compression
- Using PNG files
- Custom fonts - Integrate any TrueType font or typeface (PC)
- Custom fonts - Integrate any PostScript font (Macintosh)
- Refining animation's
- Bandwidth profiling of Flash movies
- Preparing Flash movies for the web
- Creating standalone projectors
- Interactivity
- Looping playback
- Fading elements
- Using motion guides
- Creating hotspots
- Creating rollovers
- Advanced sound features

Target Audience:

This training course is designed for web page content creators & Designers who have little or no previous experience of Macromedia Flash. Alternatively self-taught users who wish to gain a more thorough understanding of the software.

Assumed Knowledge:

No previous experience of Web Development is required however familiarity of the Windows environment is essential and a working knowledge of the Internet and graphical software would be beneficial.